The priest sings the appropriate collects with the conclusion following the final collect.

O God to whom only it belongs ever to have mercy and to forgive: receive our humble petitions; that we and all thy servants, who are bound by the chains of sin, through thy merciful loving-kindness may graciously be absolved. (Through...)

We beseech thee, O Lord, mercifully to hear the prayers of thy humble servants, and to forgive the sins of them that confess the same unto thee: that they may obtain of thy loving-kindness, pardon and peace. (Through...)

Graciously show forth upon us, O Lord, thy unspeakable mercy: that thou wouldest both loose us from all our sins, and likewise deliver us from the punishment which for the same we deserve. (Through...)

O God, who art wroth with them that sin against thee, and sparest them that are penitent: mercifully look upon the prayers of thy people who call upon thee; and turn away the scourges of thy wrath, which for our sins we justly deserve. (Through...)

Almighty and everlasting God, have mercy upon thy servant N., our Chief Bishop, and, according to thy great goodness, direct him into the way of everlasting salvation: that, by thy grace, he may desire that which is well pleasing unto thee, and with all his strength perform the same. (Through...)

O God, from whom all holy desires, all good counsels, and all just works do proceed: give unto thy servants that peace which the world cannot give; that both our hearts may be set to obey thy commandments, and also that we, being defended from the fear of our enemies, may pass our time in rest and quietness. (Through...)

Kindle, O Lord, with the fire of the Holy Spirit our reins and our hearts: that we may serve thee with a chaste body, and please thee with a clean heart. (Through...)

O God, the Creator and Redeemer of all the faithful, grant unto the souls of thy servants and handmaidens the remission of all their sins: that through devout supplications they may obtain the pardon which they have always desired. (Through...)

Strengthen, O Lord, we beseech thee, in our doings with thy most gracious favor, and further us with thy continual help: that all our prayer and work may be begun, continued and ended in thee. (Through...)

Almighty and everlasting God, who hast dominion both of the living and of the dead, and hast mercy upon all whom thou knowest will be thine in faith and works: we humbly beseech thee; that all those for whom we are minded to pour forth our prayers, whether in this present world they still be held in the flesh, or being delivered from the body have passed into that which is to come, may at the intercession of all the Saints obtain of thy bountiful goodness the remission of all their sins.

(Through...)

O God, merciful and compassionate, who art ever ready to hear the prayers of those who put their trust in thee; graciously hearken to us who call upon thee, and grant us thine assistance in this our time of need. Give wisdom to our rulers; strengthen and protect the President of these United States, all in civil authority, and our armed forces everywhere. Bless our land and preserve us from all violence and danger. Save us from prejudice, pride, impatience and every evil way. (And these things we pray through thy Son Jesus Christ....)

Prayers for use at the Rogation procession are found on p. 250.

V. The Lord be with / you.

R. And with thy spi/rit.

V. May the almighty and merciful Lord gra/ciously hear us.

R. Amen.

V. ☩ And may the souls of the faithful through the mercy of God rest in peace.

R. Amen.
